

Mr. Thomas Hofmann

Germany

24th March 2014

Letter of recommendation

To whom it may concern,

Mr. Thomas Hofmann is working as a Freelancer Paramedic at West African Rescue Association as an Advanced Life Support Paramedic since 1st March 2013.

During this period, he worked at our Emergency Response Bases at Accra, Takoradi and remote sites. His duties included the daily administrative paramedic work, ground ambulance missions as well as missions via helicopter and fixed-wing. He worked in on- and offshore environment. Thomas performed all tasks competently and with commitment and enthusiasm. He demonstrated the ability to work under pressure and to plan, organize and execute successfully.

Furthermore Thomas worked as Base Manager in Takoradi. There he was responsible for planning and controlling staff, handling of base funds and the maintenance of the facility. He demonstrated the ability to work in a managerial position. Thomas performed his actions planned and successful.

Additional, Thomas trained our staff (doctors, nurses, paramedics, and drivers) in emergency medical techniques and approaches. Here he presented communication and excellent technical skills.

He is an exceptionally good paramedic and Base Manager with excellent skills both professionally and socially. He integrated extremely well into the Ghanaian environment and the multicultural working context. Thomas has an open minded personality and everyone came along with him. He had a very proactive approach towards the job and his duties.
